

You want to learn German or improve your German?

Austria's largest German learning platform sprachportal.at offers daily free online courses and over 5,000 exercises on living and working in Austria.

The online courses take place live with experienced teachers. Courses are available at off-peak hours for people who work. Separate online courses for the profession support you with job-specific vocabulary in everyday work or in preparation for a job entry.

Participation is easy and possible without registration.

Berufsanerkennung.at in Österreich

Do you need information on professional recognition?

berufsanerkennung.at provides an overview of important contact points and information on the procedure in eight languages. Key terms relating to the recognition of occupations and training are also explained here. You can choose from 2,000 professions on the website.

An online guide helps you find the right office for the recognition of your professional qualifications in just a few steps.

Mentoring für Migrant:innen

Do you need support in starting your career?

The Mentoring for Migrants program supports well-qualified migrants entering the Austrian labor market. The mentees are accompanied for six months by a mentor from the Austrian business community.

Regular meetings provide tips and information on advertising and building a professional network.

All information on the program can be found at integrationsfonds.at/mentoring.

INTEGRATION SERVICE for Professionals

Living and Working in Austria

Consulting, information and seminars for professionals from abroad

Living and Working in Austria

With the Integration Service for Professionals, the ÖIF supports qualified immigrants in their career plans in Austria, answers questions about living and working in Austria, and provides contacts to other helpful organisations or institutions. The ÖIF also works closely with companies to support linguistic and social integration. The exchange and networking with organisations active in this area is also part of the tasks of the Integration Service for Professionals.
